So, I would like to share my opinion on the restaurant "Shaugh bou" which is right down the street. First of all, I'd like to start off saying that the restaurant is of eastern cuisine. But it's not about some mere sushi and rice. It is rather about traditional Vietnamese and Chinese dishes. I mostly opt for women, some herbal tea and sweets whenever I drop by. But the food is actually way more variable than that and is sometimes quite peculiar. For instance, they serve octopuses in the ve! The waitresses are all of eastern origin, wearing respective national attires. The place's arrangement is utterly Vietnamese as well. So, to wrap this up, "Shaugh bou" is definitely worth trying no matter what age you are. Unless, of course, you are not into eating spicy.
